

John Carroll University Financial Aid Reapplication Process

Please follow the steps below to begin the reapplication process:

Checklist for reapplying for 2010-2011 Financial Aid at John Carroll University

<input type="checkbox"/>	Locate your Personal Identification Number (PIN) that you used to complete a previous FAFSA. If you have misplaced or need to reapply for a PIN you can do so at the Department of Education's PIN Web site at www.pin.ed.gov . For dependent students a separate PIN is necessary for student and parent and both are required for processing as the PIN is your electronic signature. Please Note: A PIN is required for all electronic filers and your FAFSA will be rejected due to a missing PIN.
<input type="checkbox"/>	File your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible after January 1, 2010. You may file the FAFSA electronically using FAFSA On The Web, which contains built-in edits to help prevent costly mistakes, at www.fafsa.ed.gov . <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Although a FAFSA can be filed at any time priority is given to those applications received prior to March 1, 2010.• You must provide the JCU federal title IV code of 003050 on your FAFSA in order for the JCUOFA to receive your application results.• Indicate your attended housing status for 2010-2011.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Review your Student Aid Report (SAR), which will be sent to you via email or postal mail after you file the FAFSA. Correct inaccurate items online at www.fafsa.ed.gov or on the paper SAR if you receive one. Pay special attention to the first page of the SAR that details your application's processing status.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Notify the JCUOFA if your plans for 2010-2011 include enrollment for a single term, study abroad or less than full-time (12 hours or less) or if your housing status changes.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Promptly respond to JCUOFA's requests for additional information or documentation, such as copies of federal tax returns, verification worksheets, or other forms. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The U.S. Department of Education randomly selects applications for verification. Any student selected for verification will be required to submit the Verification Statement and signed copies of parent/student federal tax returns.• All financial aid awards are considered an estimate and no federal or state funds will credit the account until the verification process is complete.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Watch for your financial aid award letter. Awards will be made in date order as FAFSA results are received and will be released beginning March 1, 2010. Follow instructions accompanying your award that detail how to accept and credit your aid through your Banner web account.
