

DESIGNATED COURSES
Fall 2008

GUIDELINES FOR DESIGNATED COURSES:

During their four years Arrupe Scholars are to take THREE Academic classes that engage the areas of service learning, advocacy, or social action. No more than two of the courses may be from the same academic discipline. In addition, no more than two classes may be in the area of social justice, action and advocacy, or service learning as designated.

	SOCIAL JUSTICE	ACTION & ADVOCACY	SERVICE LEARNING
Arts and Sciences Designation
AR 399: Poverty & Solidarity Internship – Finucane			✓
Biology
BL 109: Environmental Biology – Magill or Lee	✓
BL 115: Genetics and Race - Kinebrew	✓
BL 260: Biological Consequences of Poverty – Lissemore	✓
Communication & Theatre Arts
CO324: Multiculturalism and the Mass Media – Stephenson	✓
CO465: Media Ethics – Hendrickson	✓
Computer Science
CS 320: Web Design and Programming – Seiter			✓
CS 444: Adaptive and Open Software Systems – Seiter			✓
Economics
EC 201: Principles of Economics – Soper (Section #60 only)	✓
EC 321: Labor and Human Resource Development – Simmons	✓
Education
ED 253: School and Society – TBA			✓
Philosophy
PL 101: Introduction to Philosophy - Ortega			✓
PL 101: Introduction to Philosophy - Langenfus			✓
PL 289: Social and Political Philosophy – Langenfus	✓
PL 315: Applied Ethics: Medical Ethics – Trew	✓
Psychology
PS 261: Child Development – Young			✓
PS 342: Psychology of Prejudice – Yost	✓
Religious Studies
RL 260: Moral Decision Making (Honors) – Lauritzen	✓
RL 466: Justice and the Global Economy – Schubeck/Cima			✓
Sociology
SC 255: Prejudice and Discrimination – Vaquera	✓
SC 385: Poverty and Welfare in the U.S. – Harris	✓

