

Jesuit Volunteer Corps Northwest 2008-2009 Service Year

Benjamin Beehner- Benjamin graduated from John Carroll University in 2008 with a Psychology degree. He is currently working at Community House Mental Health as Day Treatment Staff/Clinical Case Manager in Seattle, Washington. Benjamin shares that he is excited to gain experience in a field similar to the career he wants.

Mary Cassidy- Mary graduated from John Carroll University with a degree in Art History in 2008. She is now working as the Children's Program Coordinator for Catholic Charities: Kateri Park in Portland, Oregon. Mary is excited about her position because she loves working with youth and the community.

Jenny Hauschildt- Jenny graduated from John Carroll University in 2008 with a degree in Psychology, with a mental health services track. She is currently working as a Rehabilitation Counselor at Transitional Resources in Seattle, Washington. Jenny looks forward to helping and working with the mentally ill.

Joseph Mangan- While at John Carroll, Joseph studied German and History. He is now working as a Reading Clinician in Billings, Montana. Joseph shares that he is excited about helping a community through childhood education.

Anne Rollick- Anne graduated from John Carroll College with a Bachelors of Mathematics and History. She is now working as the High School Academic Support in Ashland, Montana. Anne is excited about working with youth.

Elyse Wagner -In 2008 Elyse graduated from John Carroll a University with a degree in Political Science, concentrating in International Studies with a Spanish minor. She is currently building on her experiences leading church middle-school and youth groups as the Youth Minister and Volunteer Coordinator at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Bethel, Alaska.

www.JVCNORTHWEST.org