

CAROL PAULL

3726 Rawnsdale Road

Shaker Heights, Ohio, 44122 (216) 491-9563

EDUCATION

Masters Degree - Social Science Administration

CWRU / Mandel School of Applied Social Sciences
Cleveland, Ohio, 1979

Masters Degree - Elementary Education

Bank Street College of Education
New York, New York, 1971

Bachelor of Arts - Psychology

Brandeis University
Waltham, Massachusetts, 1969

Certification as a Lay Child Psychoanalyst

Cleveland Center for Research in Child Development
Cleveland, Ohio, 1983

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director of field Placement and Professional Development 2002- present
John Carroll University

Make placements for candidates in all field, pre student teaching and student teaching experiences. Lead monthly university supervisor meetings and trimester cooperating teacher meetings. Teach graduate and undergraduate courses.

Visiting Instructor
John Carroll University

1999 - 2002

Teach graduate and undergraduate courses: Pre K-Kindergarten Curriculum and Methods, Observational Assessment of the Young Child, Learning Across the Early Childhood Years, Classroom Organization and Behavior Management, Integrated Learning in the Preschool Years, Integrated Learning in the early Primary Years, Introduction to Education, Educational Psychology. Developed benchmark assessments for the new Early Childhood Education program. Member of the Minority Retention committee.

Consultant
Institute for Educational Renewal

2000 - present

Work as a consultant at Margaret Ireland School, Mount Auburn School and Jamison School in the Cleveland Municipal School District. With a co-consultant teach a JCU / IER course to interested faculty, School Change: Standards as the Foundation of School Improvement. Spend one a day week in each school mentoring teachers, modeling teaching strategies in the classroom, meeting with grade level teams, conferring with the principal. Provide professional development on professional days and at staff meetings to faculty.

Psychotherapist in Private Practice

1983 - present

Provide evaluation, diagnosis and psychotherapy around individual and family issues. Work with children, adolescents, adults and families. Experienced with divorcing, single-parent and stepfamilies, in parent guidance and work with adolescents and young adults.

Lead workshops and give speeches to a variety of groups and organizations on life cycle and crisis topics such as, child development, toilet training, divorce, eating disorders. Have appeared on numerous local TV programs to discuss family and child issues.

Director of the Mandel JCC Preschool
Jewish Community Center of Cleveland

1993 - 1999

Responsible for the administration of the Preschool of 200 children; for the hiring and supervision of 20 staff, for staff and curriculum development. Led bimonthly staff consultation group. For two years the focus was on child development and management. One year was spent investigating and enhancing curriculum. Developed strong relationships with parents. Offered bimonthly parent discussion groups, periodic parent education evenings and organized a Parent / Teacher Committee to discuss school policies of interest and concern to both.

Developed ad campaign and recruitment plan for the Preschools. Fiscal management of a $300,000 annual budget. Experience with Board and Lay Committees.

Assistant Director
Jewish Day Nursery Early Childhood Center

1986 - 1993

Responsible for recruitment, training and supervision of staff. Consultant to parents about parenting, school and behavior issues.

Intake supervisor for the Family Day Care Homes Program. Responsible for intake process of placing infants and toddlers in homes. Provided ongoing supervision of homes. Liaison between parents and day care homes.

Part Time Instructor
John Carroll University

1987 - 1989

Taught Child Growth and Development and Advanced Child Psychology.
Supervised student teachers in elementary schools.

Caseworker, Associate Coordinator; Chagrin Office
Jewish Family Service Association of Cleveland

1979 - 1983

Provided diagnosis, evaluation and treatment to individuals and families. Led short-term groups for Education For Family Living on life cycle and crisis topics.

Developed outreach programs and PR for the Chagrin Office, a new satellite service provided by JFSA.

Elementary School Teacher
Cleveland Heights - University Heights Board of Education

1970 - 1977

Taught grade 5 one year then a multi-age grade 1-2 class. Responsible for all academic areas. Developed Science and Kindergarten curricula for the school system. Provided training for teachers in individualized education.

LICENSES

Teaching Certification, K-8
State of Ohio

Teaching Certification, Nursery - 6
State of New York

Licensed Independent Social Worker
State of Ohio

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

National Association for the Education of Young Children
Academy of Certified Social Workers
National Association of Social Workers
Ohio Society of Clinical Social Workers

PRESENTATIONS

Science Experiences for the Young Child, Park Synagogue Preschool, February 17, 2004

Developmentally Appropriate Art in the Preschool, Park Synagogue Preschool, December 16, 2003

Implementing The Project Approach, JDN Early Childhood Center, January – March, 2002

Child Development Overview for Preschool Teachers, JECC, September , 2002

Working With Parents and Children, Park Synagogue Preschool, January – March, 2003

Talking with Children about God, West Temple, January 19, 2003

Child Development of the Elementary and Middle School Child, Jamison School, February 14, 2003

Adolescence and Therapy, Ohio Society for Clinical Social Work, April 22, 2001