

John Carroll University

Logos

September, 2005

PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

September, 2005

Special points of interest:

- Rev. Robert Niehoff, S.J. will be the 24th president of John Carroll University and will assume his presidency in October, 2005.
- Dr. James Swindal has left John Carroll and moved to Pennsylvania to become Chair of the Philosophy Department at Duquesne University.
- Dr. Sharon Kaye won first-place female in the annual Bellefaire Biathlon. She ran 5K at 17.58 minutes and biked 13 miles for a total time 55.57 minutes. She was 8th over all out of 301 participants.
- The first volume of Parrhesia has been printed. PARRHESIA is a production of the Philosophy Club of John Carroll University. If you would like a copy please send an e-mail to emuphy@jcu.edu and include your name and address.

Welcome Class of 2009

Of Special Note—

The Philosophy Department is pleased to welcome John McCumber, Professor of Germanic Studies at UCLA, as our first Shula Philosopher-in-Residence. Professor McCumber will be with us on campus until October 19 and then again from November 29 through the end of the semester. He will, with Dr. Wirkus, be team-teaching Pl 275, Recent & Contemporary Philosophy, on Tues. and Thurs. evenings from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.. And he will present at our philosophy faculty colloquium on Friday, Sept. 30, at 3p.m. A warm welcome to Professor McCumber!

Graduate's Column

Tim Weidel (05') is starting a Ph.D. program at Loyola University, Chicago and has extended an invitation to members of the philosophy department to visit him anytime they happen to be in Chicago.

Heinrik Hellwig (05') has started graduate school at Texas A&M and hopes to start an out-of-state chapter of the JCU Philosophy Club. Interested students can contact him at hellwig@philosophy.tamu.edu

edu

Something to Think About

Never forget that only dead fish swim with the stream.

Malcolm Muggeridge

--Radio Times, 09/07/64

There is no female Mozart because there is no female Jack the Ripper.

Camille Paglia

--Sexual Personae

KEEPING BUSY

On Ignatian Day, 2005, Sharon Kaye was awarded the Curtis W. Miles Faculty Award for Community Service.

On September 15 Dr. Kaye presented a paper entitled "The Running Life: Getting in Touch with Your Inner Hunter-Gatherer" at a conference in honor of Keith Yandell at the University of Madison, WI. This paper has been accepted for publication in the forthcoming volume Running and Philosophy, which is part of Opencourt's "Philosophy and Popular Culture" series.

Dr. Earl Spurgin presented his coauthored paper, "Free Speech in the Workplace," at the 2005 Annual Meeting of the Society for Business Ethics in Honolulu on August 7. His coauthor, Dr. Rob Macklin of Charles Sturt University in Australia will present the paper at the 12th Annual Conference of the Australian Association for Professional and Applied

Ethics in Adelaide in September.

Jonathan Gunderson went on an immersion trip to Tijuana, Mexico known as the "Los Ninos" trip, where he boned up on his Spanish skills and had such a transcendent time that he almost became a Hegalian in matters of selfhood and the social.

