

TUITION CHARGES – SPRING 2012

Except as otherwise indicated, charges are considered fully earned as soon as the student registration is complete.

FLAT RATE TUITION FOR FULL-TIME UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

12-18 credit hours - $15,330 per semester

PER CREDIT HOUR TUITION RATE

Undergraduate courses - $935 per credit hour

Graduate Arts & Sciences courses - $685 per credit hour

MBA courses - $845 per credit hour

REFUNDS

The following percentages of the charge for tuition will be refunded, or credited against a balance due.

Within course change week – 100%

Within the second week of class – 67%

Within the third week of class – 33%

NOTE: Refunds for courses that meet for 5 or 7 weeks only:

Within the first two class meetings – 100%

Within the third to fifth class meetings – 50%

These withdrawal allowances are granted only after the student has formally withdrawn. For those students who completely withdraw from the university and are recipients of Federal Title IV funds, the Refund and Repayment Policy is located at:

<http://www.jcu.edu/aidjcu/refunds.htm>

SPECIAL NOTE FOR STUDENTS ON FLAT-RATE TUITION

Full-time students charged flat-rate tuition will have an adjustment in tuition only if they:
a.) drop to fewer than twelve credit hours during or prior to course change week, or; b.) withdraw completely from the university. Students who wish to withdraw completely must contact the appropriate dean.

All students, except freshmen (those with fewer than 25 hours earned) who wish to withdraw from a course may do so on BannerWeb through the end of course change week. After course change week students must go to the Student Service Center.