

06.08.2009

DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN
OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

POSITION AVAILABLE

CONSULTANT FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION
CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

The fulltime position of Consultant for Religious Education is an excellent opportunity for a creative, enthusiastic minister committed to the Catholic mission of Evangelization and Catechesis. Primary responsibilities include sharing in the mission and projects of the Office of Religious Education, promoting effective use of media for evangelization and catechesis and library services. Involvement in diocesan, state and national organizations for catechesis, evangelization, and media professionals is expected.

Applicants must have a master of arts degree in theology, catechetics or religious studies, 5 years experience in parish ministry and administration, a commitment to evangelization and lifelong faith formation, and provide a clear witness to the Gospel. The applicant must also have a working knowledge of major Catholic documents and articulate their integral relationship to evangelization and catechesis. Those interested must enjoy working in a collaborative environment with the current staff, display competency in computer applications, and demonstrate an interest in learning new and innovative technologies relative to evangelization, catechesis, and library services. This position also requires excellent oral, written, and interpersonal skills. Expected start date of September 14, 2009 may be negotiated. Send cover letter and resume by July 6, 2009 to

Barbara Walko
Diocesan Director of Religious Education
225 Elm Street
Youngstown, OH 44503
