

Summer Teaching / Course Development

2008 Awardees

Summer Teaching Awardees

Dr. Michael A. Nichols Chemistry	Develop Special Topic Course CH 495 Advanced Organic Spectroscopy and Computational Methods
Dr. Linda Seiter Mathematics and Computer Science	Investigate new approach to teaching open source software in regards to Computer Science course CS 444 Adaptive and Open Software Systems
Dr. David Shutkin Education & Allied Studies	Develop graduate level course for CH/UH teachers to advance One-to-One Initiative (CH/UH School District and JCU EDAS partnership).

Course Development Awardees

Catholic Studies:

Dr. Brenda Wirkus Philosophy	Development of PL 215: Augustine and the Philosophy of Late Antiquity . This is a donor supported grant with the goal of Augustine courses being developed in several departments.
Dr. Sheila McGinn Religious Studies	Development of RL 101 CS Introduction to Religious Studies: A Catholic Approach – a “more explicit discussion of the Catholic tradition and Ignatian heritage of the University.”

Ethics Across Curriculum:

Dr. Doris Donnelly Religious Studies	Development of course titled Theology Behind Bars considering the Theological writings of prisoners.
Dr. Dianna Taylor Philosophy	Development of course titled Philosophy and the Holocaust focusing “on issues of ethics and morality.”

Distance Education Initiative:

Dr. Jeanne Jenkins Development of Online Hybrid ED 597A Supervised Experience in Education & Allied Studies
Education & Allied Studies

Dr. Sharon Kaye Development of Online Hybrid PL 350/HM 597 Philosophy of Philosophy
Philosophy Beauty and Art

Dr. Chris Roark Development of online course for Master students in English and English
English Humanities on Shakespeare on Film