

SUN PRESS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2008

FOR COMMUNITY NEWS ALL DAY, EVERY DAY

CLEVELAND.COM/SUN

HONORING A FELLOW RIDER

JOHN CARROLL UNIVERSITY/SPECIAL TO SUN NEWS

More than 600 riders took part Saturday in the Ride for Miles, a memorial bike ride to honor the life and work of Miles Coburn. The 15-mile event started and ended at John Carroll University. Coburn, of Cleveland Heights, was a professor of biology at JCU who died Aug. 16 after being hit by a sport utility vehicle while riding his bicycle in Geauga County.