PARADE FUN

ALEX SUITZ/SPECIAL TO SUN NEWS

Children enjoy popping bubbles that come their way during the 42nd annual University Heights Memorial Day parade Monday. More than 70 units, including three marching bands, took part in the parade, which started on Silsby Road and ended at John Carroll University with a brief program and concert. Cleveland Heights canceled its Memorial Day parade due to budgetary concerns and held ceremonies at the city's War Memorial. For more parade photos, see page A6.
