

College of Arts and Sciences

Optional Minors

In addition to majors, most departments also offer optional minors, which normally consist of 18 to 21 semester hours of work in one department. Specific courses may be required by various departments. Consult the departments and course descriptions sections of this Bulletin, pages 124ff, for details.

Optional minors may be completed in the following fields:

American Politics	Greek
Art History	History
Biology	Humanities
Business (through Boler School of Business)	Latin
Chemistry	Mathematics
Classical Studies	Philosophy
Communication	Physical Education and Exercise Science
Computer Science	Physics
Creative Writing	Political Science (General)
Economics	Probability and Statistics
Engineering Physics	Psychology
English	Religious Studies
Foreign Affairs	Sociology
French	Spanish
German
Interdisciplinary Concentrations

In addition to the majors and optional minors listed above, interdisciplinary concentrations may be completed by students who so elect. These are described on pages 81-88 of this Bulletin.