DISTINCTIVE EXPERIENCES

JCU's Mission-Based Programs enable students to delve deep into topics that interest them most.

- Arrupe Social Justice Scholars – combat social justice issues and become a positive agent of social change in the world.
- Honors Program – engage in challenging coursework, think creatively, and participate in lively intellectual discussions with peers and faculty.
- Leadership Scholars Program – develop your leadership skills and learn how to inspire the leadership capacity of those around you.
- Social Innovation Fellows Program – grow as an innovator and entrepreneur who will design, create, and execute sustainable social change.

Program members receive a book award for all program course materials. They can also choose to live in the Mission-Based Living/Learning Community and take advantage of priority course scheduling.
